Non-Conforming Use – Expansion/Modification Application Process

1. Applicant Submits a Non-Conforming Use – Expansion/Modification Application to the Development Services Department

- The application must conform to the Non-Conforming Use Expansion/Modification Submittal Requirements Checklist on page 4 of this application packet.
- Planning Division staff screen the submittal at the front counter to determine whether all required items listed in the Non-Conforming Use – Expansion/Modification Submittal Requirements Checklist have been submitted.
- Applications missing required items will not be accepted for submittal.

2. City Staff Conduct Detailed Completeness Check

- Planning Division staff conducts a detailed completeness check within 30 days of submittal.
- The assigned Planner notifies the applicant in writing regarding the completeness of the application.
- An application is not be deemed technically complete until all information necessary to evaluate the proposed development, its impacts, and its compliance with the provisions of the Springfield Development Code and other applicable codes and statutes have been provided.
- Incomplete applications, as well as insufficient or unclear data, will delay the application review process and may result in denial.

3. City Staff Review the Application and Issue a Decision

- A Type II decision, made after public notice, but without a public hearing, unless appealed, is issued within 120 days of submittal of a complete application.
- Mailed notice is provided to property owners and occupants within 300 feet of the property being reviewed and to any applicable neighborhood association. In addition, the applicant must post one sign, provided by the City, on the subject property.
- There is a 14-day public comment period, starting on the date notice is mailed.
- Applications are distributed to the Development Review Committee, and their comments are incorporated into a decision that addresses all applicable approval criteria and/or development standards, as well as any written comments from those given notice.
- Applications may be approved, approved with conditions, or denied.
- The City mails the applicant and any party of standing a copy of the decision, which is effective on the day it is mailed.
- The decision issued is the final decision of the City but may be appealed within 15 calendar days to the Planning Commission or Hearings Official.
